Old Business

The lights for the holiday decorations are now at the Brick store and anyone available will help to get them ready on Tuesday, 11/13 at 6:30. Rick will work with the Fire Department to get them up.

Matt is planning to get the letters ready and out for the Home and Garden Show in the next few weeks.

Kirk has spoken with the Herald correspondent Mary Anderson. She is working on an article following up on the progress of the original "Wall to the Hall" project.

Reports from the Farmer's Market indicates everything went well this year at their new location on the green by the band shell. We should look into better ways in which to promote it next year.

No decisions were made regarding the banner system for downtown and the members were encouraged to continue to think about possible scenarios for this project.

New Business

The next formal meeting will be December 4, at the Paradigm Consulting building.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:00 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
